Public Comment: Minnie Hooker voiced her concerns over the proposed Mobile Home Ordinance. Hooker stated that some of the requirements for lot size, distance from edge of lot would not be feasible for owners who could not move their homes due to tree growth and not having the tongue etc required to move. She agreed that there were issues that need to be corrected but also holding mobile home owners to a higher standard than a home that was built was also not fair. Doug Haynes representing the Planning & Zoning Commission explained that the Commission had listened to the complaints voiced by citizens at a public meeting and this was what they had prepared to present to council.
